Who set up Achantemama?

Achantemama is an NPO that supports women and children in Mozambique. It was set up by a Japanese woman in 2009. Kuriyama Sayaka, the founder of this organization, was just an ordinary girl over 20 years ago.

After graduating from a junior college, Kuriyama got a job at a trendy clothes shop in Shibuya. She worked hard and became the manager of a branch store. She was very busy with her work and life in Tokyo. Then, her best friend, Yuka, passed away from breast cancer. Kuriyama was so shocked by her friend's death. It made her wonder about the meaning of life. She decided to go overseas alone to search for it.
